Dear Mr. Mortensen:

We have received and reviewed your amended notice. We have also inspected your operation to ensure the boundary has been staked. We have determined that you have complied with the conditions of the Notice of Noncompliance dated June 14, 1993. We have no problems with your amendment, provided it is understood that the area just north of the newly added stockpile adjacent to the access road will have to be inventoried for threatened and endangered plants before any further surface disturbance can occur.

Sincerely,

PENELOPE J. SMALLEY

Area Manager
